Course Sponsorship Request Information

PDP receives frequent requests to bring our nationally renowned courses to facilities around the country. Since it is our mission to provide continuing education, we are pleased to offer a new option for interested agencies to take advantage of our fine courses. If you are interested in arranging to sponsor a course, please read the enclosed information carefully to determine whether you wish to enter into an arrangement with PDP for this purpose.

Terms/Conditions

1. Advertised PDP courses are available on a limited basis due to the scheduling demands of course instructors, and we will do our best to accommodate your needs.
2. Course sponsorship through PDP for any agency are planned to avoid conflict or competition with scheduled PDP courses either in the location or the topic, since this would be detrimental to both endeavors.
3. In return for an agreed upon fee, PDP will make all speaker arrangements (contract for dates and course: pay airfare and honoraria.) The agency/sponsor will be responsible for all other arrangements and expenses.
4. The fee will vary depending upon the course, the number of participants expected and whether CEUs through PDP will be required.
5. Fee payment schedule: A deposit is required to confirm the course upon delivery of a signed contract. A second payment is due one month prior to the course and the remaining balance due upon course completion.

Proceed

If your agency accepts the above terms and conditions and wishes to proceed with arranging for a course, please complete the 'Course Sponsor Request Form' below and return it to PDP for further consideration.
